

8 February 1967

MEMORANDUM FOR: Joseph C. Goodwin

SUBJECT: Lunch with Mr. Edward O'Brien,
Newhouse Newspapers (ST LOUIS GLOBE-DEMOCRAT)

1. On 3 February 1967 I had lunch with Mr. Edward O'Brien of Newhouse publications.
2. He informed me that his secretary, Miss Judith Coburn, is leaving his office and plans to write a book on the use of government funds in research at universities. Mr. O'Brien believes she will involve CIA and may be calling us for information. He indicated that she is a leftist in her political beliefs; has a father who partially owns the paper, and was given a job in Washington to give her a more realistic outlook (which apparently hasn't happened).
3. Mr. O'Brien is afraid she will use his good reputation to gain entrance to CIA.
4. He also indicated concern over the Fulbright letter incident which he considered a mistake on his paper's part and I assured him that we did not harbor any ill will because of this.
5. He expressed a desire to meet you and I told him we will keep this in mind.

George F. Moran